

Lesson Assignment Overview

Beginning Band lessons with Mr. Ohlsen are on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Schedules are posted in the classrooms, around the school, and are available under the “Lessons” tab on our website at: <http://ccsd66band.weebly.com/pv-lesson-schedules.html>.

Weekly practice assignments are given during the lessons. Practice assignments are our “homework” and are tailored to individual students to focus on the specific need each student has.

Below is the current assignment sheet that is filled out at lessons. The most important thing to practice is in the “For Assessment” row. My expectation is students will be able to perform this at their next lesson.

Next, in blue, is the “For Practice” section. There is ALWAYS something else to work on. These are skill builders and may move to the “Assessment” row in the future. “Notes and Special Instructions” are extra items to remember.

Practice time should be tracked by the student and checked by the parent. By December, beginners should be at or above 60 minutes per week. Four weeks of 60 minutes or more, with a parent initial, earns students a small prize. Nothing big, just a little something for the effort.

These assignment sheets will be collected and used as a part of your child’s progress assessment.
