

*Center Cass School District 66
Music Boosters
Scholarship Application*

The Center Cass School District 66 Music Boosters are pleased to offer scholarship opportunities to deserving students. Scholarships can be used for Summer Music Camps or private instruction. All Scholarship awards are at the discretion of the directors and Music Booster Board.

Any student currently enrolled in one of the instrumental music programs from grades 5 – 8 are eligible to apply. Students applying for summer music camp scholarships must provide information about the camp they are attending. Students applying for a private instruction scholarship must provide a name and contact information of the private instructor.

A total of FIVE $100.00 Scholarships will be awarded.

Scholarship applications are due by Friday, April 15, 2016.

Please be aware of the following policies regarding music scholarships.

- Students may apply for only one scholarship per year.
- The maximum scholarship award is $100.00.
- Regular attendance and participation in in-school lessons, rehearsals and concerts is required for consideration.
- Students who are awarded summer music scholarships must provide highlights of their summer music experience with their director. These highlights will be promoted by the directors and music boosters.
- Student scholarship checks will be made payable to the music camp or private music teacher. Camps that have been paid in full will require proof of payment to receive reimbursement if a scholarship is awarded.
- Applications must be complete to be considered.
- Summer camp scholarships must be used prior to Sept. 1.
- Private instruction scholarships must be used within 6 months of the award.
